Synthetic gardening notes

Fictional verification document. This page is deliberately unrelated to the calculator's supported document recognition rules.

Prepare a small garden bed by clearing weeds and loosening the soil. Choose plants suited to the season and water them regularly. Keep a record of rainfall and observe how much sunlight reaches the plot. Leave enough space between plants and remove fallen leaves from paths.